

Our Website

Take the survey
by scanning the QR code or at :

discoverlyon-mb.com/#Survey

Opéra nationale de Lyon

The Lyon National Opera is a jewel of Lyon architecture. Inaugurated in 1831, it was designed by the architect Antoine-Marie Chenavard. It is the location of many world-renowned artistic productions, combining tradition with innovation.

Hôtel de ville de Lyon

Lyon City Hall is a symbol of the city's history. Its construction began in the 17th century, and its impressive facade reflects the architectural style of the time. It has been the seat of municipal administration for centuries.

Place des Terreaux - Fontaine Bartholdi

One of the most emblematic squares in Lyon. In the center, you will find the famous Bartholdi Fountain which was created by sculptor Frédéric Auguste Bartholdi, who also designed the Statue of Liberty in New York.

Palais de la Bourse

A majestic example of neoclassical architecture. It was built in the 19th century and became the economic center of Lyon at the time.

Basilique Saint-Bonaventure

The Basilica of Saint Bonaventure is a religious treasure. Built in the 14th century, it is a remarkable example of Gothic architecture. The interior is decorated with superb stained glass windows.

Passage de l'Argue

The Passage de l'Argue is a historic covered passage that immerses you in the atmosphere of old Lyon. It is lined with quaint shops and charming cafes.

Place des Jacobins

Place des Jacobins is an elegant square, famous for its central fountain. It is surrounded by historic buildings and is a popular meeting place.

Place des Célestins

Place des Célestins is another charming square in Lyon. It is named after the Théâtre des Célestins, one of the oldest theaters in the city, founded in 1792.

Place Bellecour

Place Bellecour is one of the largest squares in Europe. In the center you will find an equestrian statue of Louis XIV. It is a lively venue for events and festivals.

Grand Hôtel Dieu

The Grand Hôtel Dieu is a historic landmark that was recently renovated to house luxury boutiques, restaurants and a luxury hotel. Its original architecture is impressive.